THE ONE THING NEEDED.
She doesn't care for opera, the drama or the play.
She doesn't care for housework—she isn't built that way.
She doesn't care for dancing, for flowers or for books.
She doesn't care for bloomers—she doesn't like their looks.
She doesn't care for picnics, they freckle her and tan her.
The only thing she does care for is a marriageable man.

—Chicago News.

The Dover News says: "While Rev. H. W. H. H. Rapp was at the First Methodist Church yesterday night it seems a good idea to let him not return far enough out into the darkness, for during the sermon somebody stowed a watermelon out of Mr. John S. Wilson's buggy."

The well-known drawing room in a tavern, next to the stable boy, "Extricate the quadruped from the vehicle, stabilate him, devote him an adequate supply of nutriment and when the aurora of morn shall again appear, then the original owner will be compensated with your pecuniary remuneration for your amiable hospitality." The poor youth then entered the tavern and informed the landlord that a Dutchman was without and couldn't speak a word of English.

HAPPY REMDÉN.

They Have a Big Picnic Yesterday in a Grove Near Bradlyville, O.

The members of Idaho Tribe, I.O. R. M., of Bradlyville, O., had a picnic yesterday in a beautiful grove near that place.

Owing to the recent floods the roads in that section were very bad, notwithstanding which there was a good crowd present.

There were visitors from Manchester, North Liberty, Bentonville, Elizabethtown and other points in Ohio, with several from this city.

Where "long talks" had been announced on the program, there were only "short talks" by Messrs. John L. Winter and Thomas A. Davis, both Past Great Sachems of Kentucky, and Dr. Henry W. Ray to hold up the "rep" of Wyandotte Tribe as chicked eaters.

Mr. R. H. Pollitt went over in the afternoon and reports that Mr. Morris, Marshal of the Day, was in the house.

George Brantingham of Elizabethtown was in the moving spirit in getting up the entertainment, and he proved himself the right man in the right place.

ELECTRIC PARK.

All This Week the Murray-Hart Comedy Co. will Hold Fort.

And still they come. In spite of the immense crowd of Wednesday night, the seating capacity of this popular entertainment place was again tested to its full capacity. There is no doubt at all to the reputation which the Murray-Hart Company has established for itself among the poor people of Maysville. There was no change in the bill for last night, "The Woman Hater" was again presented in the most clever style and again was the audience most highly amused and entertained. Tonight there will be an entire change of program. A new and very laughable comedy, "The Irish Doctor," which, while saying a good deal, will be just as good as the two other farces, will be presented and, in addition, the patrons will have the pleasure of listening to the sweet music of the full Mayville Orchestra. The overture will begin at 8:30; performance at 9:30. Fifteen cents pay admission and car fare. Reserved seats on sale at Nelson's.

Business is very brisk, which so often causes us to be empty efforts to throw off impediments to the proper performance of her duties. Herbine will aid and assist nature in her work, and insure a skin clear and beautiful, entirely free from all the effects. Price 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

MADE WAY FOR LIBERTY.

Charles Showell Made an Unsuccessful Attempt to Escape Yesterday.

Charles Showell, the gentleman who stole a barrel of whisky out of a C. & O. freight on a siding near the Depot several months ago, and who was held over to the Grand Jury, played a crafty trick yesterday on Jailer Motivator and his assistants.

The County prisoners are kept on the Second floor of the Jail, and yesterday morning the officials went to it to wash it out and otherwise clean up.

Showell made a quiet sneak on them and got down with the city prisoners, and after dinner the guard was taking them out to go to work.

Just as they reached the outside door Showell started to run, and he had on a good pressure of steam, as he outran all who started after him.

Early this morning, however, Constables McDowell and Wells, who had started late last night, overhauled him two miles this side of Ripley and brought him back.

Jailer Motivator said that if he kept the pace he would start with him to be in New Orleans by daylight.

One knows the unbearable torture, the peculiar and agonizing pain, caused by piles, unless he has suffered from them. Many believe them to be a curse. MURPHY the Jeweler.

WE'VE ALL BEEN THERE.

Why Mrs. Brown Sent Her Hubby to Come at Once.

There has been an unusual number of Maysville matrons and maidens among the visitors to Glen Springs this summer, and most of the matrons left home at home.

One of the let-a-horses—whom we will call Brown—was having such a big, fat, nice, jolly good time, that in the hey-day of his life, he was sent to Mrs. Brown, the following exuberant outburst:

All the relatives,
The acquaintances, relatives
Contrived by the devil to put men down,

There's more now, I tell you,
Seductive, abusive,
Than the snare to a man with his wife out of town.

He feigns such a delightfulness,
Stay-out-at-night-funness,
Shame-let-night-funness?

I own it with pleasure,
A scholar rakes-happiness,
What will-you-take-incomes,
None can explain.

His wife may be beautiful,
Tender and dutiful,
Tis not her looks that cause his delight,
But the cursed opportunity,

Baileful immaturity,
Scatters his scruples as day scatters night.

He feels whisky-and-waterful,
Reindeer-and-saithful,
Naïve-and-naught-eatful
To his taste.

So baneful, alay-some,
Quite corpse-de-ballets-some,
Make stork-eatly-some.

With which we have been
Mrs. Brown rubbed the mountain fox off her reading glasses, took a half day retreat on the rustic beach at the spring of spring, and made a careful diagnosis of the situation; then she got John Walker to hunt the telephone wire with these words:

GLEN SPRINGS, August 14th,
Brown, Maysville, Ky.: Poem just received.
Come here at once. — Mrs. Brown.
Brown took the hint—and the next train.

Bakers' Bread.

The bakers' bread of today is not the bakers' bread of twenty years ago. Science and study has developed this food product more than any other manufactured article of consumption. The F. H. Traxel Company of this city is now the leading bread bakers of this section, simply because they have given study and close attention for years to making Bread that will please the public. Even now there is an impression that prevails among the few that bakers' bread is unwholesome and unfit for family use. We will admit that there are many bakers who make their bread the same as their forefathers did years ago, and hence this impression is justifiable to those who never had an opportunity to get Bread made by bakers who thoroughly understand how to make Bread that will be praised for its merits. The F. H. Traxel Co. has done its share to supply this section, enabling people to get Bread that will meet with every requirement. We make the assertion that this Bread will meet with every requirement because we have evidence of it, and the evidence is the increasing demand whenever sold.

Hon. Sam H. Stone and his sons James and John have formed a company at Louisville under the name of the Stone Tobacco Company, and will begin to make tobacco in the early fall.

Those interested in a Union Christian Baptist Church in East Mayville, suggested by Rev. Mr. Porter of the Baptist Church of Mayville, may make an application to Mr. Marion Tolle of Forest avenue to have Rev. Porter talk upon this subject.

KENTUCKY FLASHES.

A reporter at London, Ky.

London, Ky., Aug. 18.—Surprise was created here by the reappearance of Circuit Clerk Daugh White and Deputy Felix Davidson from the west, and especially after it was rumored in Clay county that Davidson would never again be seen alive. It is said that the Whites are apprehended for their safety, since White and Jim Baker's release from jail on account of the disappearance of Jim Beverly and Carlo Baker.
